Marion Butler says the Populists will put up a straight national ticket in 1904. It won't be straight if Marion has anything to do with incubating it.

That one Democrat elected to the Vermont Legislature will be unanimous and will not have any trouble in making his caucus harmonious.

Chairman Babcock says the Republican party has a record on the trust question that was made in Congress. It has and that is what hurts it.

The cost of the strike so far is figured up at $123,320,000, not including what it has cost the public. But it includes losses to mine owners and coal roads, which they will make good by higher prices.

The strike has entered on its twenty-first week. Where does the money come from to support so many men and their families so long. Other labor organizations must be contributing freely.

President Roosevelt can't get around much these days, but there is nothing to prevent him from doing some pretty active thinking upon the perplexing issues confonting the G. O. P., which stands for the Go Out Party.

The coal mine owners say they have nothing to arbitrate. The strikers say they are willing to let any "impartial tribunal" arbitrate. That is the difference. And while the mine owners refuse to arbitrate, there is a coal famine, with coal at $18 a ton.

The friends of a young lady teacher in one of the schools of Rochester, N. Y., felt very much concerned for her when a big, unruly boy, a holy terror to the teachers, entered her department. They feared she could not manage him. But she did. She managed him, married him, and quit teaching.

Hon. Carroll D. Wright says "the ultimate solution of economic problems will be found in religion." He may be right, but it will take a long time to inject religion enough into the average Republican to solve any problem fairly when there is a chance to do any gouging for his benefit.

SEASON OF JUBILEE AT FIFTH ST. M. E. CHURCH.

Began With Sermon by Rev. W. L. Cunninghim Last Night—Other Distinguished Visitors Are Here.

The opening service of the jubilee at Fifth Street M. E. church last night in celebration of the deliverance of the congregation from the debt upon its handsome house of worship, was conducted in an impressive and befitting manner by the Rev. W. L. Cunninghim, now pastor of Main street church, Durham, but formerly of this city. Rev. Mr. Cunninghim had a most attentive body of hearers and he spoke with force upon the text from Samuel: "There is no restraint to the Lord, save by many or by few." His remarks were in line with the spirit of the hour and were edifying and pleasing to the congregation.

It was expected that Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of Elizabeth City, would conduct the opening service but he telegraphed his regret that sickness prevented his coming.

The services to-night will be by Rev. R. C. Beaman, of Washington, N. C., once presiding elder of this district and an able, consecrated man. To-morrow night Dr. L. L. Nash, of Rocky Mount, will preach and he, too, will be heard with great pleasure and profit. There will be special musical programmes. Both ministers are already in the city and have joined heartily with the pastor of the church, Rev. Jno. H. Hall, in the spiritual and temporal rejoicing accompanying the season of jubilee.

The distinguished Bishop W. A. Wilson, of Baltimore, who will conclude the jubilee with sermons Sunday morning and evening, will arrive Saturday and will be the guest of Mr. Ed. Borden. The people of Wilmington will have a rare opportunity to hear a powerful preacher and a distinguished theologian in the two sermons by Bishop Wilson. Everybody is cordially invited.

OVERMAN HERE TO-NIGHT.

He Will Speak in Court House—Yesterday at Jacksonville, N. C.

[Special Star Telegram.]

NEWBERN, N. C., October 1.—The speech of Hon. Lee S. Overman to day at Jacksonville was that of an orator, an actor and a logician, interspersed with humor and pathos. He was introduced by Frank Thompson, Esq., and was referred to as the logical candidate for the position now held by Pritchard. His friends say if he was worthy to be the Democratic caucus nominee of 1895 to be defeated by Pritchard in the combination of Republicans and Populists in open session, he is worthy now to be the choice of the Democrats to succeed Pritchard in the glorious days of Democratic triumph, which is but just ahead. Mr. Overman will reach Wilmington on the 12:15 P. M. train over the Wilmington and Newbern railroad to-morrow. Let Democracy turn out and hear him plead for a continuance of good government. C. J. R.

YELLOW LEAF MARKET

Chamber of Commerce Committee on Industrial and Business Enterprises in Session.

TOBACCO WAREHOUSE HERE.

Steps Taken Toward Establishment—Nucleus for a Stock Company to Launch Movement—Will Send Delegation to Investigate.

For the purpose of considering the establishment of a warehouse in Wilmington and the development of this immediate territory into a tobacco-growing section, the Chamber of Commerce Committee on Industrial and Business Enterprises, to which the matter was referred, held a meeting yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Exchange rooms on Water street. The question was fully gone into and a committee was appointed to visit leading yellow leaf centres for the purpose of more fully acquainting the local promoters with the management of enterprises similar to the one sought to be established here.

Those present at the meeting yesterday were Chairman M. W. Jacobi, Messrs. W. E. Worth, Geo. O. Gaylord, J. H. Boatwright and W. H. Brown. Secretary Kyle, of the Chamber, was also present and kept a record of the proceedings.

The chairman read a letter from President Chadbourn relative to the establishment of a warehouse and another from the same source enclosing a subscription blank to the capital stock of the new enterprise upon which Mr. S. P. McNair and another prominent business man each agreed to take eight shares at $25 each.

Mr. W. E. Worth said from what he could learn it would take from $40,000 to $50,000 to launch the enterprise upon an extensive and profitable scale, but the question was, will a sufficient number of people in this section grow tobacco enough to warrant the market here? Several expressed the opinion that they would; that growers would come to a good market for hundreds of miles around and that many would ship here by rail at the better freight rates enjoyed by Wilmington.

Mr. Geo. Gaylord presented in this connection a letter from Mr. Frank Andrews, of B. F. Hall & Co., at Jacksonville, N. C., in which he said he sold tobacco in Kinston on Sept. 1st, and saw other leaf sold by E. W. Dixon, of Onslaw, on the same market at the highest price paid on that day at Knott's warehouse; that W. H. Hurst from the same section of Onslow hauled tobacco 70 miles to Kinston. This Mr. Gaylord said, went to prove that not only will tobacco go a long way to a good market, but that this section is peculiarly adapted to growing the better grades of leaf.

Mr. Gaylord also made a fine argument for the growing of tobacco in the country; people who come here on excursions from tobacco sections always bring more money, as is proved by actual sales in the stores.

Letters to Mr. Gaylord were read from the Liberty Warehouse, Greenville, N. C.; Horry Tobacco Warehouse Co., at Conway, S. C.; L. G. Cherry, Conway, S. C., and several others. These gave a pretty good idea of the inside workings of a warehouse. One of them which sold over a million pounds during September received in commissions $5,305 in addition to weighing and auction fees, which amount to nearly half as much more. The expense for labor, etc., was about $75 per week. The clerical force included a book-keeper at from $60 to $100 per month; an assistant book-keeper at from $35 to $50 per month; an auctioneer at from $75 to $125 per month; night watchman at from $30 to $40 per month; ticket marker at from $12 to $15 per month, and a floor manager at from $35 to $40 per month.

The committee was very much enlightened by the reading of the letters, but in order that no detail may be omitted, it was decided to defray the expenses of Messrs. W. E. Worth and Geo. O. Gaylord as a special committee to go to Goldsboro, Kinston, Wilson or other tobacco centres and get the practical working of things. These gentlemen will decide upon the date and place or places for the official visit later.

It was adopted as the sense of the meeting that the committee would do everything possible and as rapidly as possible to develop the movement.

Mr. Gaylord submitted samples of tobacco sold lately at the Liberty warehouse, Greenville, N. C. Mahogany wrappers sold for 45 cents; mahogany fillers at 16½c; white wrappers at 38c; Lemon wrappers at 62c, and smokers at 14½c. He suggested that the tobacco booth in connection with the Carnival be established by all means and offered the lot next north of his store on Front street as a suitable place.

A Boy Disappeared.

Mr. John Welch, the well known butcher on Castle street, was very much distressed yesterday over the disappearance of his little 5-year-old son from the family residence at Sixth and Castle streets. He was described as wearing a light hat, white waist, blue overalls and suspenders. He has light hair, blue eyes and light complexion. He disappeared yesterday morning and had not been found yesterday afternoon.

You should not fail to attend the grand opening at the Racket Store to-day and to-morrow, Thursday and Friday. Good music a plenty. †

SPLENDID GORDON-SHAY GRAND OPERA COMPANY.

Its Business Manager Tells of the Reception in Virginia—"A Runaway Match" Here To-night.

"If you have not seen the compliments showered upon Miss Shay and other members of the Gordon-Shay Grand Opera Company by the Norfolk and Richmond papers in their criticisms of the operas presented in these two cities recently, I wish you would cast your eyes over this bunch," said Mr. Albert, business manager of the Gordon-Shay Co. to a STAR man last evening. "I never have but on a very few other occasions seen the press so unanimous in their praise of a star and her supporting company as they have been over Miss Shay's performances this season.

"Look at this paper, the Richmond News, in flaring headlines on the first page says: 'Shay Replaces Beloved Emma Abbott;' others say she is the equal to Calve, etc. I could go on forever telling you what the critics say in praise of this organization, but I will let you judge for yourself when she comes to the Academy on the 8th of this month. We have a very large and expensive company, consisting of fifty people, carrying our own orchestra and a car load of special scenery."

At the Academy To-Night.

The bright and exceedingly funny farce comedy, "A Runaway Match," will be the Academy's offering to-night. The play, which the press say is a "side-splitter," will be given a correct presentation by a capable cast. During the action of the piece popular specialties will be introduced.

Another feature of the performance to-night will be a fine programme of music rendered by the Academy's orchestra, directed by Prof. C. W. Hollowbush. It will be as follows:

1. Overture. March, "Clorinds," Hains.
2. Gems from King Dodo: "Look in the Book and See," "Tale of a Bumble Bee," by Luders.
3. Xylaphone and Tubaphone Solos by Mr. Fred J. Poufe.
4. Concerto "Lagarre" by Blauer.
5. Exit. "A Georgia Wattermelon Party," by Camp.

THE Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION.

Annual Entertainment by Local Association Was Delightful Event—Refreshments by Ladies' Auxiliary.

Over 350 people attended the annual reception at the Y. M. C. A. last night from 8:30 to 11 o'clock and were charmed with the hospitality and delightful entertainment that marked the event as one of the most successful of its kind in years. The building was handsomely decorated from cellar to dome and brilliantly lighted. The scene was a pretty one indeed.

Dr. W. C. Galloway, president of the Association, delivered a most cordial address of welcome to the members and visitors and during the evening a programme of charming music by popular young people was observed.

Mrs. Samuel Jennings Springer beautifully rendered a vocal solo and Miss Norma Foster delighted her auditors with a violin solo. Miss Corbett gave a splendid rendition of a classical selection on the piano and a quartette from the First Baptist church choir entertained delightfully with two selections.

Secretary Charles Dushan closed the programme with a brief address on Association work which was well received, after which the Ladies' Auxiliary served dainty refreshments in most approved style.

The event will go down in Association history as one of the most enjoyable on record.

INTO NEW QUARTERS.

Chamber of Commerce Will Remove to Its Princess Street Home To-day.

NEWS OF A DAY ON WHARF.

Movement of Cotton Steamers—Clyde Liner a Day Late—New Warehouse Going Up—River and Coastwise Steamers—Other Notes.

To-day the Chamber of Commerce will move its headquarters from the northeast corner of Water and Princess streets to the building formerly occupied by the Southern Express Company, nearly opposite the STAR office. On account of the removal the regular meeting of the Chamber this afternoon has been postponed. In its new place the organization will have a comfortable home. The arrangement of the offices, etc., has already been given in these columns. Yesterday workmen were busy in making the necessary changes and linemen were engaged in transferring the wires for the Exchange telegraph station.

Cotton receipts yesterday were 4,528 bales against 2,535 on the same day last year. The monthly statement of cotton and naval stores, as posted yesterday at the Produce Exchange may be found in the commercial columns of to-day's STAR. Of the cotton receipts yesterday the steamer Hawes brought 136 bales on a flat, in addition to a large amount of manufactured goods, and the Compton brought up 96 bales from Little River, S. C. The Compton also brought about 400 barrels of mullets.

Ground was broken yesterday for the two-story brick warehouse which the D. L. Gore Company will build on the wharf opposite the store of the company on North Water street. The wharf is also being substantially repaired and made nearly new. The warehouse will be one of the most commodious and convenient to its owners of any in the city.

The Norwegian steamer Europa, 652 tons, Capt. Sundt, arrived yesterday from New York under three month's charter by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. Although small in tonnage, she has a good freight capacity and is a very trim little steam craft.

The British schooner Arrow, 183 tons, Capt. Firth, arrived yesterday from New York and will receive a cargo of lumber at Chadbourn's for Grenada.

The British tramp Plympton, from Huelva, previously reported, went up to Navassa yesterday to begin discharging her cargo of kainit.

The Clyde steamer Saginaw, Capt. Hale, arrived yesterday morning a day late on account of a delay in leaving New York.

The pleasure yacht Roamer, proceeded yesterday to Southport and will accompany the Compton around to Little River, S. C., to spend the night.

Foot Badly Crushed.

A little son of Engineer William Evans, Fourth, between Grace and Walnut streets, had his foot so badly crushed yesterday afternoon that amputation may be necessary. Particulars could not be learned, but it was understood that the boy, who is about 13 years of age, attempted to cross between some box cars on the A. C. L. yards, and that while his foot was between the bumpers a shifting engine struck the cars and badly mangled the limb. The little sufferer was given the best of surgical attention at once.

YESTERDAY SUNSET BEGAN THE JEWISH NEW YEAR.

Holiday Being Observed by the Hebrews of Wilmington—Other Israelite Festivals in the Present Month.

The Jewish New Year 5668 A. M., or Tishree Rosh Hashanah, as it is more properly called, began with the going down of yesterday's sun and will continue until the same hour to-day. Next to Yom Kippur, which comes ten day's later, it is the most important festival in the Jewish calendar and is religiously observed by all good Israelites. The orthodox Jews will observe the third day of the month also. The observance of both days is said to be through an uncertainty as to which is the right day of the two, and the orthodox Jews, rather than observe the wrong day, observe both.

Saturday, October 11, is the feast of Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement. On this day, as well as on New Year's Day, all establishments conducted by Jews are closed, and the occasions are observed as holidays.

On October 16 the eight days of the tabernacle commence. While the orthodox Jews celebrate all eight days, the reform Jews celebrate only the first and last day of the tabernacle. During the eight days of the tabernacle some orthodox Jews live in booths, constructing houses of tree limbs and bush and leaves, and living in the open air, where the constellations can be observed from their cots. This is to commemorate the passing of the children of Israel through the wilderness. The seventh day of the tabernacle is known as Hoshanah Rabah. On that day blessings and prayers are offered to plants, trees and flowers, etc. The last day of the tabernacle, observed by all alike, is called Sheminu Aserat, and many observe this day as a holiday.

New Year's Day and the feast of Yom Kippur are being and will be generally observed in Wilmington with services in the synagogue.

OPENING OF THE CITY SCHOOLS.

Mr. Connor Has Arrived—Industrial and Art Departments for Coming Year.

Mr. Ralph D. W. Connor, of Wilson, the new principal of the Wilmington High School, and one of the brightest young educators in the State, arrived in the city Tuesday night, and was yesterday being introduced to the people of his new home by Superintendent Blair. The High School is fortunate to have secured the services of so competent a principal as Mr. Connor.

All the schools, both white and colored, in the city system, will begin the new scholastic year Monday. This week the teachers and classes are being organized so that on the very first day the vast machinery of the schools will move off smoothly.

The art and industrial departments in the schools will receive more than the usual attention this year, an object long desired, but which was impracticable until this season. Drawing will be a feature in all the schools, and each building will have a separate apartment for this purpose. Miss Mary Bernard will teach this branch in all schools north of Market street, and Miss Annie Harrison will teach in the schools south of Market.

In Justice to Mr. Willis.

In speaking of the trial in the Mayor's court Tuesday of the negro who spat from the gallery upon persons in the parquet below, the negro's story was given and it was stated that it was very probably true. This was intended to apply to what the negro said of the jammed condition of the gallery and not to his statement as to his perspiring instead of spitting, as Officer D. W. Willis was most positive on that point. Mr. Willis is one of the best and most conservative men on the force and not on any account did the reporter mean to reflect upon his integrity or the truth of what he said about the matter. Since he has been on the force he has never made an arrest that was not followed by conviction and that is a record of which he may indeed be proud.

Health Department Statistics.

The records in the office of the City Health Department show 56 deaths during September—17 whites and 39 colored. Sixty-four births—26 white and 38 colored. One fumigation was made and two quarantines for diptheria established. Only two cases of typhoid fever were reported. The trash carts removed 1,156 loads of garbage and the Health officers made 3,039 inspections. It is confidently stated by those in a position to know that the sanitary condition of the city is the best in ten years.

Rev. Mr. Winecoff Bereaved.

Numerous friends of Rev. J. E. L. Winecoff, pastor of a group of Presbyterian churches in Columbus county, will deeply sympathize with him in the loss of his devoted wife, whose death occurred at the family home at Whiteville Tuesday. She had been in poor health a long time. She leaves besides her husband two little sons, who with their father were here yesterday with the remains en route to Concord where the interment will take place to-day.

Miss Lord's Dancing School.

Last June I read in the Baltimore Sun that during the convention of the National League of Dancing Masters of North America, held in Milwaukee, a new round dance was introduced called the "Five-step," which was prophesied to be the popular dance of the coming season. Wishing to keep up with the times, I concluded to learn this dance, and went to Milwaukee in September to take lessons from Prof. Jas. W. Baugert, President of the National League of Dancing Masters.

I found the "Five-step" so thoroughly attractive that I feel assured that in a short period it will be equally as popular as the waltz and two-step.

During the lessons, Mr. Baugert reviewed me in the round dances, fancy dances and exercises, pleasing me very much by saying I was thorough and up-to-date in my method of teaching, and asking me if I would like to join the National League of Dancing Masters. After talking to me on the subject, he said he would send me papers next March and then I could decide if I wished to join during the next convention, to be held June, 1903, in Atlantic City. While speaking of my lessons, I will mention that Mr. Baugert gave me a method of teaching the waltz, a revised system of which he hopes will be the means of bringing back the true 3-time waltz, which has been corrupted for the past few years by the two-step, many people confusing the two together so as not to be able to distinguish them apart.

For seven years I have been teaching dancing, and as I open my eighth season I realize the truth of the old saying, for every class has undergone a complete change. I will teach a new method of waltzing, the latest round dances, the Two-step, the Delwar and the Lorraine, also new fancy steps, and last but not least the exercises which are so very important in developing the muscles in the limbs, thereby giving grace and control. I am giving my teachers Misses Gore and Passano a careful training in the new dances, and we will be glad and ready to teach any one desiring lessons, beginning at 8:30 to-night. This season I will divide my day class, having a beginner's class, instructions given in the round dances, fancy dances and exercises, and a finishing class in which I will teach waltz, Two-step Five-step and the German. An opening will take place Friday afternoon, Oct 10th, at 4:30 o'clock, to which all my former and future patrons are invited to send their children. There will be dancing and I will be glad to see my little friends come and enjoy themselves. The first lesson will take place Monday afternoon Oct. 13th. A new piano and the latest music will add to the attraction of my class. Miss Cammie A. Lord, Germania Hall. †

THURSDAY MORNING. OCT. 2.

POLITICS IN DUPLIN COUNTY.

Call for Meeting of Independents—Democratic Committee Nominates D L. Coolton for the House.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

KENANSVILLE, N. C., Oct. 1.—There is a persistent effort in Duplin by Populists and Republicans to get out an independent ticket; but so far not a single Democrat, disgruntled or otherwise, has been connected with the movement. The following notice is posted throughout the county: "To the free and independent citizens of Duplin county:

"There will be a mass meeting of citizens and voters of Duplin county at Kenansville, N. C., on Friday, Oct. 3, 1902, for the purpose of nominating a county and legislative citizens ticket to oppose the ticket now put out, which represents less than one-third of the vote of said county as expressed in primary. Now, fellow citizens, is your time to take your choice between a free and independent people or a ring-rule, office-holding class." * * *. (signed) Many Citizens"

This notice is amusing when you consider the fact that it is gotten up and promulgated by certain Republican postmasters appointed by Pritchard and McKinley who live by "office-holding" alone. Furthermore, the crowd that inaugurated this movement consisted of 18 populists and republicans, and not one Democrat, which was all that could be gotten together in the county.

At the Democratic primary, which was the first in Duplin, more than fifty per cent. of the vote was brought out at a very busy season with the farmers, and there is no dissaffection among Democrats, and no dissatisfaction. This so-called citizens movement will not dare call a primary, for they would not get two hundred votes in the county.

The Democratic Executive Committee met here Monday to consider the resignation of J. W. Gresham as nominee for the House. Mr. Gresham was not a candidate before the primaries, but the people spontaneously arose and voted for him; but on account of business matters, which require his attention, he handed in his resignation. He will support the ticket loyally and fight the opposition with all his power. The committee nominated D. L. Carlton in his place. Mr. Carlton is the present member, but declined to let his name go before the primaries, as he was chairman of the committee and wished to devote his whole time to that work. Under the circumstances he was prevailed on to accept the nomination and will be elected by a large majority.

It occurs that Mr. D. S. Kennedy, who was recommended by the County Convention for the Senate, has spent a great deal of his time out of the State for the last few years, except the last twelve months, and there is some doubt about his eligibility. To avoid any trouble in this line he has patriotically withdrawn and Mr. A. H. Hicks of Faison has been recommended in his place. This makes a strong legislative ticket and the prospect of a large Democratic majority in Duplin was never better.

There is a considerable opposition here to the proposed removal of the James Sprunt Institute to Wallace, which almost amounts to indignation. A strong memorial will be presented to Presbytery against its removal.

DEVERY'S FIGHT WAS UNAVAILING.

The New York State Democratic Convention Ruled Out Both Delegations

FROM THE NINTH DISTRICT.

The Hill Ticket With Coler for Governor Nominated—Platform Adopted Denounces Trusts, Demands Tariff Revision, Justice for Cuba.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Oct. 1. A convention so strenuous in its final hours as to bring almost personal conflict and terminating in such perfect harmony as to allow the completion of the State ticket with less than a hundred delegates out of four hundred and fifty in the hall, was the result of to-day's closing of the Democratic State Convention.

It began in the early morning with a prepared slate of candidates. The slate was not broken in any particular, but the right of objection to it was given to all the delegates except when in the case of one New York delegate it was believed to be an infringement of the rules under which the convention was acting.

The ticket was nominated as follows: For governor, Bird S. Coler, of Brooklyn; lieutenant governor, Chas. N. Bulger, of Oswego; secretary of state, Frank Mott, of Chautauqua; comptroller, Charles M. Preston, of Ulster; attorney general, John Cunneen, of Erie; state engineer and surveyor, Richard W. Sherman, of Ouinda; state treasurer, George R. Finch of Warren; associate judge of the court of appeals, John C. Gray, of New York.

Naturally a great deal of the interest in the convention centered in the attitude it would take towards the seating of William S. Devery, former head of the police department of New York, who held a regular certificate of election from the Ninth New York district. It was not an unexpected event that the convention decided to unseat him, and it was not also unexpected that he and his followers were vociferous in their objections.

So Thoroughly had Mr. Devery made up his mind that the convention would have none of him, that he did not attend the meeting of the committee on credentials, but spent the earlier hours of the morning in the rear of the convention hall, announcing his attitude.

When the convention decided to adopt the report of the committee, by the vote of 422 to 21, then Mr. Devery walked out of the convention after being allowed to declare himself a good Democra and proceeded to hold a mass meeting on the steps of the United States Hotel. After that Mr. Devery started for home and threatened all sorts of disasters for the ticket, but halted long enough in his denunciations of the leaders to assert that he was a good Democrat.

Credentials Committee's Report.

At 11:37 o'clock the temporary chairman took the gavel and rapped for order, and the report of the committee on credentials was called for. Chairman McMahan said: "In presenting the report I move the previous question." This was to prevent debate.

When the secretary read, "In the Ninth district, New York, neither delegation is entitled to seats in the convention, because of the wholesale corruption," a roar of cheers and hisses went up and as it continued Devery was seen making his way to the platform. Vainly the chair rapped for order; vainly a band played. Down the aisle Devery forced his way, the crowd clearing the way for him. When he reached the platform steps he raised his hands in an effort to stop the pandemonium that reigned. A sergeant-at-arms, with his hands on the big ex-chief's shoulder, tried to force him back to a seat, but he shook him off and started to speak. He said, amid cheers:

Devery Makes Protest.

"Democrats of this convention, Samuel J. Tilden was deprived of his right of franchise, as were the people of the United States. We do not want that to occur here to-day. It is through the work of a clique of this convention that the people of the Ninth district are about to be deprived of a similar right. Mr. Hill, as State leader of the State of New York, we ask justice from you, as leader of the Democratic party. We do not come here as honest Democrats to be deprived of our rights."

As Devery left the platform not a delegate was in his seat and the gallery was in a wild state of excitement.

A Devery delegate got to the platform and attempted to speak. The chair told him that he could not address the convention. Amidst a tremendous uproar he started to speak and the sergeant-at-arms hustled him down the steps. For fully ten minutes the convention and spectators roared, applauded and hissed. Finally some semblance of order was obtained and then Devery presented a minority report.

The majority report of the committee on credentials, throwing out the Ninth district, declared that neither the Devery nor the Goodwin delegation were entitled to seats by reason of "wholesale corruption pertaining to the primary election for said district whereby it cannot be determined what delegates were legally elected."

The majority report was sustained.

All of the other counties voted for the majority report, declaring the seats of the delegates from the Ninth vacant. When the vote had been announced Devery left the hall, followed by his delegates and friends. There was not much trouble or cheering.

The committee on permanent organization made its report, naming Martin W. Littleton, of Brooklyn, for permanent chairman. Mr. Littleton made a speech in which he criticised some of President Roosevelt's recent speeches.

Platform Presented.

At the conclusion of Mr. Littleton's speech the platform was presented. It calls for steadfast fidelity to American principles, for the lack of which it arraigns the Republican party, demands the return to the principles of Thomas Jefferson, to stop demoralization of the country; favors trade expansion, but objects to this country aping England in trying to establish a colonial government; condemns the action of the government in its treatment of the Philippines; demands justice for Cuba in the matter of trade by reducing the tariff to a strictly revenue basis; sympathizes with the Jews in Roumania; favors the election of United States Senators by direct vote, and condemns the national administration for "trading judicial positions for State aid;" demands tariff revision, and denounces the trusts.

The platform was adopted, and after making nominations the committee adjourned.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—When the train bearing Wm. S. Devery and his friends reached the city to-night from Saratoga Devery was greeted with great enthusiasm. He made a speech, in which he said he would do all he could to elect Mr. Coler and the rest of the ticket, and called on his supporters to do the same. There was an imposing procession from the train to the Devery headquarters.

WILKESBARRE, PA., Oct. 1.—The Sterling washery at Plymouth, which has been in operation for some months past, was compelled to suspend operations to-day, a crowd of men and boys having cut the belting and plugged the machinery. The owners of the washery say considerable damage was done.

AN IOWA REPUBLICAN.

Nominee to Succeed Speaker Henderson Denounces Trusts and Monopolies.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CLARIEN, IOWA, Oct 1.—Judge B P. Birdsall, in accepting the Republican nomination for Congress in the third district, to succeed Speaker Henderson, in his letter of acceptance, made public to-day, says of the tariff and monopolies:

The Republican party of Iowa believes in the greatest good to the greatest number and will not permit the policy of protection to become a shield for the greed and avarice of man, whether presented in the form of trusts, individual, joint stock, or corporate existence, nor a shelter beneath which designing corporations shall be able to oppress the people of this country. Whenever such men or corporations have gained such control of production, so that the price of the same is regulated by them and not by home consumption, Iowa Republicans propose to destroy such monopoly by applying the principles of reciprocity and by so readjusting the tariff as to force such combination into competition with the world's markets. Whatever revision or readjustment may be made by the Republican party it will be made upon the lines of protection to American labor."

EFFORTS TO END THE COAL STRIKE.

Mine Operators and Mr. Mitchell Invited to Conference at the White House.

BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

He Will Appeal to Both Sides to Come Together and Terminate the Great Strike—Has No Power of Compulsion—Meet Friday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—President Roosevelt will make an effort to bring the anthracite coal mine owners and their striking employes together in the interest of the public good. This conclusion was reached after a series of conferences with his cabinet advisers yesterday and to-day. The decision was arrived at when the lawyers of the cabinet informed the President that there was no way under the constitution and the form of government of the United States for Federal intervention to end the strike. This phase of the situation was canvassed and the determination to have the mine operators and President Mitchell meet the President was reached when it was found that no other method was open. At the conclusion of the conference to-day, which was attended by Secretaries Root, Shaw and Moody, Attorney General Knox and Postmaster General Payne, at the temporary White House, the following telegrams were made public:

"White House, Washington, Oct. 1.—George F. Baer, president Reading Railway System, Philadelphia, Pa.; W. H. Truesdale, president Lackawanna and Western RailroadCompany 26 Exchange Place, New York; E. B. Thomas, chairman of the board, Erie Railroad Company, 21 Cortland street, New York; Thomas P. Fowler, president New York O. & W. Railroad Company, Beaver street, New York; R. M. Olyphant, president D. & M. Company, New York; John Marble, 537 West 34th street, New York.

"I should greatly like to see you on Friday next, October 3rd, at 11 o'clock A. M., here in Washington, in regard to the failure of the coal supply, which has become a matter of vital concern to the whole nation. I have sent a similar dispatch to Mr. John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America.

(Signed) THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Will Appeal to Both Sides.

At the meeting Friday the line of approach toward the settlement of the strike will be an appeal by President Roosevelt to both sides to come together as men and not to allow false pride or a feeling of obstinacy to stand in the way of the termination of the great strike which is fraught with such threat of misery to thousands of people. It is stated by one of the President's advisers that beyond this the President cannot go; he has no powers of compulsion to bring into play against either side and he must rely upon his persuasive abilities and his appeal to their sense of humanity if anything tangible is to be accomplished.

The President intends to lay before his hearers the situation as it appears to him, with all the prospective horrors that will follow a fuel famine, and will urge them in the interests of humanity to open the mines and supply the demand for coal. The President has taken this action because he felt it to be his duty to do so, as the executive head of the nation, threatened with great peril. The President has, in a sense, taken upon himself the burdens of arbitrator in this great dispute between capital and labor, and though the arbitration is not compulsory and he is not even known under the name of arbitrator in any of the invitations issued to-day, it is the hope of the President and his advisers that it will be effective.

Has No Assurances.

It is stated positively that the President has no assurances from either side which formed the basis of his call for this meeting. But when Secretary Root was in New York yesterday and the night preceding, he saw one at least of the coal presidents whose names appear in to-day's list of invitations. It was stated that the meeting was a casual one, and no statement could be extracted touching the personality of the other great forces that are operating in this strike who might have been seen by the war secretary in his peace mission. Other great financial forces than Mr. Morgan, competent to exercise a tremendously powerful but secret pressure upon corporations, exist in New York, and it is surmised that with some of these the secretary, not unacquainted in a business way in that circle, may have had interviews during his visit.

Will Accept Invitation.

NEW YORK, October 1.—President Truesdale of the Lackawanna road, President Fowler of the Ontario and Western Company and President Olyphant of the Delaware and Hudson Company, this afternoon acknowledged the receipt of President Roosevelt's invitation to confer with him over the coal strike situation. It is quite certain that the invitation will be accepted by the operators. Following the receipt of the President's invitation, the coal presidents in the city held a brief conference, but no word as to what passed between them was obtainable. J. P. Morgan said: "I have heard of the President's invitation to the coal presidents and I think it is an admirable thing. As to results we can tell better when the operators come back."

Early Asphalt Roads.

History and tradition have furnished us with the basic information which has guided us in building the civilization of today. It is said that in prehistoric times the incas of Peru built roads that extended from the tropically heated valleys up the mountains to the regions of perpetual frost, using the natural asphalt rock, and these roads are in good condition today. The discovery of a large section in Kentucky covered with asphalt rock, which scientists have pronounced a perfect and natural combination of asphalt and quartz sand, most valuable for paving purposes and far superior to any artificial combination that could be made, is of vital importance, says the American Asphalt Journal. The day may not be far distant when every city and village will have all streets paved with asphalt rock, a material which is not only the most durable, but cleanly and noiseless.

A Word to the Wise

"It is the savings of individuals which compose the wealth—in other words, the well being—of every nation. On the other hand, it is the wastefulness of individuals which occasions the impoverishment of States. So that every thrifty person may be regarded as a public benefactor, and every thriftless person as a public enemy."
